

About Us

R-Kidz Early Childhood Education Center Inc.

Math and Science:

Math and Science are a part of our everyday life, we just need to know where to find them. Through investigation, learning centers, equipment, and projects we learn how to count, make patterns, put together puzzles, define spatial relationships, and discover quantities. We learn how to use a graph, perform experiments, thus hypothesizing, projecting, and problem solving.

