

©Karen's Kids

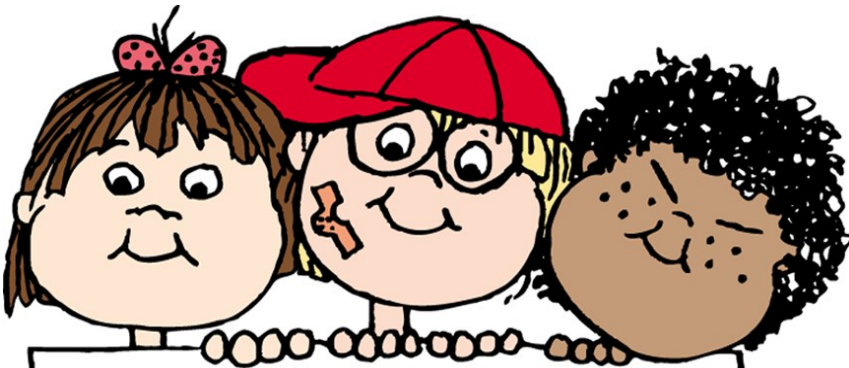

Nancy Doyle

Program Director & Co-Owner

Nancy started out in Elementary Ed. and Physical education at Warner Pacific College, later going to Walla Walla College, which is now Walla Walla University. She then changed her major to Early Childhood Education. Nancy also attended Walla Walla Community College taking Early Child Education classes. Nancy is STARS Certified and taught Early Childhood for twenty five plus years. As the program supervisor for R-Kidz, she helps the teachers complete program requirements. Nancy holds certifications and training in Blood Borne Pathogens, T.B. Test, CPR, Pediatric First Aid and has a food handlers permit. Some of Nancy's hobbies include decorating, building furniture and antiquing, she is also an artist. Nancy has been with R-Kidz for the past seventeen years and counting!

©Karen's Kids

Childhood Superhero: Roy Rodgers